

SAWH 2008 PUBLICATION PRIZES

The Southern Association for Women Historians invites submissions for its annual publications prizes. To be eligible, entries must be written in English, but the competition is not restricted to works published in the U.S.

Books

The Julia Cherry Spruill Prize for $750 is awarded for the best published book in southern women's history, broadly construed. The Willie Lee Rose Prize of $750 is awarded for the best book on any topic in southern history authored by a woman (or women). For both of these prizes, only monographs are eligible. Books with a copyright date of 2007 are eligible for both the Spruill and/or Rose prizes.

Articles

The A. Elizabeth Taylor Prize is awarded annually for the best article published during the preceding year in the field of southern women's history. Articles published in journals and anthologies between January 1 and December 31, 2007 are eligible. Editors, scholars, and authors are invited to nominate eligible articles for the prize.

To Nominate a Publication:

Four (4) copies of each entry must be mailed to the following address no later than April 1, 2008, and all entries must be clearly marked with the name of the prize competition being entered. Please mail submissions to: Megan Taylor Shockley, Department of History, 126 Hardin Hall, Clemson University, Clemson, SC 29634

If you have questions about any of these competitions, you may contact the SAWH executive secretary at (864) 656-4427 or mshockl@clemson.edu
